

SEC. 10. AUTHORIZATION OF ADDITIONAL SECURITY ASSISTANCE TO ISRAEL

(a) MASSIVE ORDNANCE PENETRATORS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The President is authorized to take all necessary and appropriate measures to ensure Israel has the means and capacity to protect itself against a threat from Iran, including additional security assistance to include GBU-57 30,000-pound bunker-buster bombs (known as the Massive Ordnance Penetrators, or MOPs) and the means to deploy them.

(2) DEPLOYMENT.—If the Governments of Israel and the United States determine that the threat from Iran against Israel so warrants, the President may transfer to the Government of Israel any MOPs, and the means to deliver MOPs, under such terms and conditions as the President determines necessary, pursuant to the authority of paragraph (1). The President shall ensure that Israeli personnel have every opportunity and means to train with such defense systems, including joint training exercises utilizing strategic bombers, consistent with the requirements of this paragraph.

(b) FOREIGN MILITARY FINANCING.—

(1) FINDING.—Congress finds that the Memorandum of Understanding between the United States and Israel setting annual foreign military financing levels for Israel is set to conclude at the end of fiscal year 2018, and the terms of its extension will be renegotiated over the 2015 through 2018 time period.

(2) AUTHORIZATION.—The President is authorized to provide any additional foreign military financing to Israel in each fiscal year from fiscal year 2018 through fiscal year 2028 as may be needed to address threats from Iran.

(c) REQUIREMENT TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE.—The President shall provide any necessary assistance and cooperation to Israel to effectively respond to any heightened threat of terrorism or military threat by any entity supported, directly or indirectly, by Iran.
